

LOCAL MATTERS.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge Slaughter presiding. After our report closed yesterday C. C. Nelson, Commissioner of Roads for Washington Magisterial District of Alexandria county, executed new bond, with O. M. Rosser surety.

The report of the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county, of the purchase by them, subject to the approval and ratification of the County Court, of a site of land to be used for a poor's house for the county, was read, and the Court refused to ratify the purchase, and J. D. Nance, who offered said land for sale, his permission to withdraw his offer well said.

Watson, constables, who were ordered to give new official bonds, on or before the last day of the next term.

Court adjourned till to-morrow.

ROME, THE INTERNAL CITY.—Prof. George Reid Crowell, presented to a delighted audience the wonders and beauties of Rome, ancient and modern, at Sarepta Hall last night.

The Italian spirit, the glow of the beautiful description, "the twilight of the day," as it were, to go, like a purple gleam, on the dusky carpet of the evening night. This picture was received with applause, as was the dissolving of a sublime statue into an emblem of purity—a cross of calistis, surrounded at the base with roses. This was decidedly the most beautiful picture of the evening. The dying Gladiator was very highly praised, and the "categorical" illustration—the old mother, looking so grim as she could, just as if she had never played with a child, with three young kittens, full of fun by her side—created great amusement.

The audience was carried out from one point of interest to another; from palace to cathedral, and from garden to garden. St. Peter's and all the numerous churches were visited, and the interior of them shown and explained in the most interesting manner by Prof. Crowell. The entertainment concluded with "Rock of Ages."

To-night will be the last opportunity the citizens will have of witnessing this truly wonderful art exhibition, when St. Peter's and the Alps will be presented.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—Grand Patriarch Knight, of Fredericksburg, who was expected to be present at the meeting of Mary's Movement No. 6, last night, did not arrive, but the following officers were installed by Past Grand Patriarch Charles Goodrich:

Chief Patriarch, Benoni E. Nails; Ward, Priest, Wm. W. Sherwood; Senior Warden, B. F. Peake; Junior Warden, Samuel A. Manick; Senior, Hugh Latham; Treasurer, James H. DeVaughan; Outside Sentinel, Edgar Lyles; Inside Sentinel, W. A. Nails; Guide, Wm. E. Latham; First Watch, James J. Jarrett; Second Watch, James G. Graham; Third Watch, J. R. Jarrett; Fourth Watch, James E. Cole; Guards of the Temple, Wm. Peake and S. M. Davis. The meeting was largely attended, and the members expect to appear shortly in new and handsome uniforms.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY.—The Alexandria Light Infantry held a meeting at their armory last night and appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. M. P. Vincent, J. D. H. Lunt, J. M. White, E. O. Munroe and Leonard Marbury, to consider the feasibility of building a new armory, to ascertain costs, &c., and report at a future meeting of the company.

The Executive Committee were also authorized to invite Senator Zeb B. Vane to deliver his famous lecture, in this city, at an early day, entitled "Seated Nations," and it is thought he will accept the invitation.

The dress parade and drill, which was to have taken place to-morrow afternoon has been postponed until Friday evening as will be seen by order of Lieut. Geo. McBurney.

TEMPERANCE.—The Good Templars held a large meeting last night and initiated four new members. This Lodge, which is a new one, will hold a public meeting Tuesday night next, which will be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Boyle and Penick, and the Alexandria Reform Club will be invited to be present.

The Colored Reform Club held one of its largest meetings last night, in Roberts' Chapel, on Washington street, Rev. Fields Cook, president, and after prayer and reading of the Scripture, Rev. Mr. Pearce, Rev. George T. Pinkney, and Messrs. Lewis McKenzie and Frank Wood delivered addresses. The pledge was then presented to the meeting, and received a large number of signers, among them Robert Horkins, president of the colored conservative club.

POLICE REPORT.—There was not a case at police headquarters this morning, and one of the policemen remarked that as long as the weather keeps as it is to-day—rainy and generally disagreeable—there would be no cases, for the criminal class were only lively on bright days.

Justice Lovejoy had before him yesterday Rebecca Corrick, on complaint of her husband, H. Corrick, for disturbing his matrimonial happiness. Rebecca was bound over to keep the peace, and departed stating that if Hiram come fooling around her again she would break every bone in his body.

NO MONEY FOR VIRGINIA.—A Virginian, connected with people of wealth, went to Italy, more a day or two ago to negotiate a loan, and was informed that in consequence of the condition of affairs in this State, those who had money to lend preferred to place it elsewhere, and the loan was refused, although good security was offered. No money for Virginia is the sentiment one meets with outside of the State, and still there are those who assert that a State derives great benefit from a forcible readjustment of its debt.

YOU CAN FIND A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF Tin Ware, such as Baking Pans, Pie Pans, Cutlery, &c., cheap at STANBURY'S, Cor. King and Columbus st.

CHICKEN FIGHT.—Sam Slack or somebody else, once said that the man who did not love to look at a chicken fight had no taste for the beautiful in nature, and no moral grandeur in his character. Well, if this is so, Alexandria is blessed with a large number of nature's noblemen, for there congregated at the upper end of Prince street yesterday morning an enthusiastic crowd of men and boys to witness a fight between two old roosters, that could hardly fly a foot above the ground.

WOOD HOUSE, THREE.—Large numbers of wood and coal thieves are going about the city, and those who keep their faces exposed place are surprised to find how rapidly it disappears. Mr. Wm. Recker, who lives at the upper end of Prince street, hearing a noise in his wood house, last night, sent a boy to find out what caused it. On entering the place the boy was struck on the head with a stick of wood by a negro man, who made his escape.

THE PUBLIC MEETING.—The committee appointed by the Alexandria Catholic Beneficial Society to make arrangements for a public meeting in behalf of the sufferers from the famine in Ireland, met at the City Treasurer's Office last night and decided to call a preliminary meeting of the citizens in the chamber of the Common Council Thursday night to make arrangements for a general public meeting at an early day.

COUNTY POOR'S HOUSE.—The treasurer's sale of a lot of land in the county to have taken place yesterday was postponed in order that a bill might be introduced in the Legislature asking the State to donate to the county a site for a poor's house. As the proceeds belong to the county fund there will likely be some objection to the passage of such a bill.

The steam tug Kate, owned by Capt. Joshua Ellis, has started for Wilmington, Del., where she will undergo repairs.

LOCAL REVENUES.

The City Council meets to-night. Cumberland, Md., is agitated over the local option question.

Bernard Struder, a member of Alexandria Reform Club, is very ill.

February will have five Sundays in it this year, the first time for twenty-eight years.

John Hill, the old colored man stricken with paralysis on Vinegar Hill Saturday night, was better to-day.

The West End Reform Club meets in St. John's Chapel to-night, and will be addressed by L. D. Harrison and others from the Alexandria Reform Club.

An old fashioned fox hunt, in which forty or fifty gentlemen engaged, accompanied by thirty dogs, took place near Centerville, Fairfax county, last week.

The U. S. Senate has ordered the papers in the case of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, to be taken from the files and referred to the Committee on Claims.

The gross heat of this year, it is said, denotes that our coldest weather will come about the middle of February, and that our warmest fires will be required for the first days of spring.

Mr. Cooper, the wagon manufacturer of Fairfax Court House, has a cow which gave in seven days 271 pounds of milk, which yielded 112 pounds of butter. This is considered remarkable.

Two cases of small pox are reported at Culpeper Court House. The disease is supposed to have been brought there by a colored man named Jack White, a shoemaker, who cooks in Washington.

A woman appeared on the streets this morning dressed as near like a man as possible, but attracted very little attention, and she was evidently disappointed. She was supposed to be a stray sheep from the Women's Convention lately held in Washington.

COURT OF APPEALS YESTERDAY.—Brown vs. Hill, survivor. Argued by Thos. B. Brown and Judge W. W. Cram for plaintiff in error and submitted.

Thos. J. Brown sworn to produce as counsel to this court.

From trap to cellar stacked with DRY GOODS at ISAAC REICHERT'S.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Jan. 27.—The market to-day was firm, and prices a shade higher. Flour is steady. The offerings of Wheat amounted to 1545 bushels, and sales were made at 127, 119 and 118 for Fultz and Lancaster. Corn is higher, with sales of 730 bushels of white and yellow at 68. No Oats reported, and small lots of Rye brought 90 and 92.

Generally well fed quality.....4 25 a 5 25
Medium good fair quality.....3 25 a 4 25

Extreme range of prices.....2 50 a 5 50
Most of the sales were from.....3 75 a 5 00
Total receipts for the week 1834 head; sales 1097.

The market was somewhat more active than it was last week, and prices are quoted fully as high as they were then, quality being taken into consideration, the difference in quotations being for lots higher than last week. The quality was of a better average than last week, for while there were a good many common cattle, the lots were more numerous and of a slightly better grade.

Milk Cows.—Common Cows are dull; the best grades are in fair demand. We quote at 23a $10 per head, as to quality.

Sheep.—The number of the offerings is lighter than it was last week, but the quality is a little better, and trade also a little more active, there being some Western demand, with fair demand on the part of our home butchers. We quote common to fair Sheep at 45c cents, and the better grades 55c cents. Lambs 50c cents per lb. gross. Arrivals this week 2054 head.

Hogs.—There is some falling off in the number of the receipts as compared with last week, but there is a marked difference in the quality in comparison with the offerings then, a large number of them being of a very inferior grade, yet there are some equally as good as the best offered last week, but not many. We quote common to fair at 64c cents, and the better grades 64c cents, with a few at a shade higher figure, though few sold above 65 cents, 64c cents per lb. not marking most of the sales. Arrivals this week 6195 head.

In the Senate today Mr. Randolph, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill for reinstating Gen. Fitz John Porter to his position in the army, and giving him his back pay. Mr. Logan, from the same committee, presented a minority report differing in opinion from that presented by the majority. It is reported that the radicals will fight the majority report, and that should it pass, strong pressure will be brought to bear upon Mr. Hayes to induce him to veto it.
